

All of the telemarketers can send by mail. They purposely call because you can't throw away a call. We are paying extra for caller ID just so we can ignore these intrusive calls all evening and weekend. We are frequently awakend on the weekends by telemarket calls. It is an invasion of privacy, and their aggressive tactics are especially dangerous to vulnerable elderly adults. Don't weaken the bill.